Help for Pacific Exporters

The New Zealand School of Export is offering a Scholarship to New Zealand based Pacific exporters. Valued at $1200, the Scholarship is available to those enrolled in the internationally accredited Diploma of International Trade, delivered by the School through distance learning.

The highly practical course, which starts on 1st July 2009, has been written by exporters for exporters and focuses on the fundamentals of international trade. Exporters apply their learning in the workplace from day one and by the end of the course, have the confidence, knowledge and expertise to really take their business forward.

"Being able to offer this Scholarship in conjunction with the Chamber befits our status as a Charitable Trust" said Dr Romuald Rudzki, Director of the New Zealand School of Export. "It is a very practical way of assisting Pacific Exporters who might otherwise be unable to participate in the Diploma, to have the opportunity to do so".

Details of the scholarships and an information pack about the Diploma of International Trade are available from alison@export.ac.nz or click on <http://www.export.ac.nz> The closing date for applications is Friday 19th June 2009.
