

Scotland Quiz: Questions

1. What is Scotland's capital city and what is its largest city (two points)?
2. What was the estimated population of Scotland in 2009 (to the nearest million?)
3. What is Scotland's unofficial national anthem which will be sung at the Rugby World Cup?
4. In what year did the unification of the Scottish and English Royal families take place when James VI of Scots became James 1 of England?
5. The death of which Christian martyr is symbolised on the Scottish flag?
6. What do Scotsmen traditionally wear under their kilt?
7. What are 'neeps and tatties'?
8. When is Burns Night celebrated?
9. Which New Zealand Prime Minister was born in Scotland?
10. Where is the oldest golf course in the world?

TIEBREAKER:

11. The Scottish and English Parliaments were combined in the Act of Union of 1707. In what year did Scotland get its devolved Scottish Parliament again?

This quiz has been produced by the New Zealand School of Export. For more information on target markets and other useful information, go to www.export.ac.nz to check out our free export library and information service (ELIS).

This version: 18th March 2011.

Scotland Quiz: Answers

1. What is Scotland's capital city and what is its largest city (two points)?
Edinburgh and Glasgow.
2. What was the estimated population of Scotland in the middle of 2009 (to the nearest million?) 5,194,000
3. What is Scotland's unofficial national anthem which will be sung at the Rugby World Cup? Flower of Scotland
4. In what year did the unification of the Scottish and English Royal families take place when James VI of Scots became James 1 of England? 1603
5. The death of which Christian martyr is symbolised on the Scottish flag? Saint Andrew
6. What do Scotsmen traditionally wear under their kilt? Nothing
7. What are 'neeps and tatties'? Swede and potatoes, traditionally served with haggis.
8. When is Burns Night celebrated? 25th January
9. Which New Zealand Prime Minister was born in Scotland? Peter Fraser, who served as New Zealand's 24th Prime Minister from 1940 to 1949.
10. Where is the oldest golf course in the world? St Andrews established in 1552

TIEBREAKER:

11. The Scottish and English Parliaments were combined in the Act of Union of 1707. In what year did Scotland get its devolved Scottish Parliament again?
1999.

This quiz has been produced by the New Zealand School of Export. For more information on target markets and other useful information, go to www.export.ac.nz to check out our free export library and information service (ELIS).

This version: 18th March 2011